

<http://gsbwww.uchicago.edu/student/labg/index.htm>

A conference to examine current business and economic trends in Latin America.

LATIN AMERICAN BUSINESS GROUP

CHICAGO GSB

Challenges & Opportunities for Latin America

Saturday, May 22nd 2004, 8:30am - 4:30pm

The University of Chicago Gleacher Center, Chicago River at 450 North Cityfront Plaza Drive

Registration: $35; Students: $30

Sustained Growth in Latin America, Key Lessons from Chile

Pedro Aspe, CEO, Protego and former Finance Minister, Mexico

Recent Challenges for Argentina: Development, Outlook, and Opportunities

Ricardo Lopez Murphy, former Presidential Candidate, Finance, and Defense Minister, Argentina

Managing Growth and Uncertainty in Latin America

Edmundo Vallejo, Chairman and CEO, General Electric Mexico

Henrique Rzezinski, Vice President of External Relations, Embraer

Luis Meisler, Senior Vice President, Oracle Latin America

Luis Ramirez Rojas, Founder and CEO, Tecnoacción

Christopher Baudoin, CEO & Country Manager, AON Risk Services Mexico

Moderator: Luigi Zingales, Robert C. McCormack Professor of Entrepreneurship and Finance

Liberalism in Latin America, Success or Failure?

Francisco Gros, former President, Brazilian Central Bank and former CEO, Petrobras

Pedro Aspe, CEO, Protego and former Finance Minister, Mexico

Ricardo Lopez Murphy, former Presidential Candidate, Finance, and Defense Minister, Argentina

Moderator: Gary Becker, 1992 Nobel Laureate and University Professor of Economics and Sociology

What Does it Take to get Foreign Direct Investment into Latin America?

Alberto Verme, Global Head of Investment Banking, Citigroup

McKinsey & Company

jungle

JOHN DEERE

Persons with disabilities may request assistance in advance by calling the Center for Latin American Studies at 773-702-8420.